

Risk Takers and Pizza Makers: Kansas Entrepreneurs

A standards-based field trip for fourth grade

Kansas Museum of History • Topeka

The Kansas Museum of History in Topeka is providing an opportunity for teachers to combine Kansas standards with a unique educational experience!

The Risk Takers tour covers the contributions of famous Kansas entrepreneurs, including Joseph McCoy, Fred Harvey, Walter Anderson, and Dan and Frank Carney. Students will make their own personal-size pizzas using standardized fast food techniques learned from the tour.

The tour fulfills grade-specific standards and provides pre- and post-visit material to help teachers meet those standards.
